Marge Writes

Today we worship with the traditional service of Lessons & Carols. This is an opportunity for us to be reminded of our need of a Saviour, the ancient words of promise that a Saviour would come, and the story of the Saviour's coming at that very first Christmas.

May you hear the readings and carols with fresh ears and open heart so that you might once again be overwhelmed by God's love for you.

Robin and I thank you for your many kindnesses throughout this year towards us, the parish and the wider community. It is such an honour to serve as your pastors.

Whether you will be in Greymouth or elsewhere this Christmas, I trust you will be able to join with others in worship. I also encourage you to find a quite moment to acknowledge the nearness of your Saviour and whisper, "thank you."

In the spirit of our Advent themes Robin and I wish you all a hope filled, peaceful, joyous, and love encountering Christmas.

With love and blessings,

Marge

HOW'S IT GOING?

For many years I have been praying daily for persecuted Christians around the world. I am astounded what they have to go through. Because of this I have considered carefully why I believe at whatever cost.

There are at least 200 prophecies in the Old Testament that have been fulfilled in the birth, ministry, death and resurrection of Jesus. Fifty are very specific.

The certainty of the death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus as described in the Gospels.

Jesus is my perfect Saviour. He has forgiven all my sins and removed all feelings of guilt from the past.

Believing in and following Jesus, I have become adopted into His family. This means I have eternal life now and after my death. Doubt about what happens when I die is gone.

The Holy Spirit lives inside me and is forming within me the fruit of the Spirit as listed in Galatians Ch 5:22 & 23.

Jesus has also given me spiritual gifts, two of which are the healing of past hurts and deliverance ministry. These are to help other people.

I trust the promises of God and the teaching of Jesus. This is my life.

Are you certain of your faith too?

CHRISTMAS APPEALS

We have received two Christmas appeal requests which are described below.—

CHRISTIAN BROADCASTING (RHEMA)

When broadcaster and singer Julia Grace talks about her life right now, she can't help but laugh:

"We're building a house, so I'm currently living in a cow shed - it's like a Nativity scene!"

Julia will again be live on Newstalk ZB, hosting part of CBA's nationwide Christmas broadcast alongside a line-up of familiar Christian voices spanning 18 hours December 24 and 25. They'll share stories, music, and honest conversation about the birth of Christ and what it means for ordinary people living through everyday joys and struggles.

For many listeners - tradies on the road, nurses between shifts, families travelling, or those spending the day alone - it may be the only time they hear the Gospel this Christmas. In a world where fewer New Zealanders engage with church, this broadcast quietly enters homes, cars, and workplaces with a message of comfort, joy, and faith.

Julia knows how much that matters.

That's the heart of this broadcast - to share hope that's real, hope that meets people where they are.

How can we help?

A gift of any size means you are enabling thousands of listeners nationwide to hear the hope of Christmas this season.

Below are several options for making a donation—

- visit <https://cba.org.nz/give-campaign> to give by credit card OR
- make an online bank transfer to account number 12-3110-0014706-00 Christian Broadcasting Association Trust OR
- place cash in an envelope marked "RHEMA" and put in church offering basket and the church will send it on. This method will not get you a tax receipt.

TEARFUND

Tearfund has four projects for their Christmas Appeal this year—

East Africa Hunger Crises

After 4 years of failed rains, Ethiopia is on the brink of famine. Support families with urgent food supplies for today, and drought resistant seeds for tomorrow.

Modern Slavery

More people are trapped in slavery today than at any other time in history. Help Tearfund support survivors, prosecute perpetrators and halt trafficking.

Middle East Emergency

women and children are struggling to survive conflict-driven famine and devastation in Gaza and the West Bank. Join us in equipping Tearfund's Christian partners to provide life-saving help — and hope — this Christmas.

Where Most Needed

Help Tearfund respond immediately to disasters and humanitarian emergencies, as well as helping us support communities for the long haul as they overcome poverty.

To give to any of these Tearfund projects, either:

- scan the corresponding QR-code on flyer on the foyer notice board OR
- go to Tearfund website — <https://www.tearfund.co.nz>, click on donate, and then click on project of your choice.
- or place cash in an envelope with your project of choice on outside and put into the church offering basket for the church to send on. This method will not get you a tax receipt.
