CHURCH CLEANING ROSTER

We are looking for a few more to join our church cleaning team. We try to pair people up to share the tasks. The obligation is two weeks in a row 5 times a year. The first week is a thorough clean and the second is a spot clean. For more information or if you would like to join the team for 2026, please contact Robin.

DEEPEST SYMPATHIES

Mary Findlay died peacefully early Wednesday morning. Mary was a longtime faithful member of this parish and served in many ways including as a Sunday School teacher, worship leader of the Saturday 6pm service, greeter at funerals, helper at the fair, and dedicated home group participant.

Mary faced into her battle with cancer with courage and grace. Never complaining, but always greeting everyone with her winning smile. Her faith in Jesus was unwavering. Some of her last words to me (Marge) were, "See you on the other side" as she gave a thumbs up.

Our sincere condolences to Jim, Lyndall, Mia and Nikau, Caro and Louise, Gaylene and Colin.

Mary's funeral will be held tomorrow, Monday, Jan 19th, at 11am at Holy Trinity Church.

We were also sad to hear that Brian Honey, brother and brother-in-law of Keith and Kate Honey, died on the 8th January with the funeral on Saturday 10th in Hamilton. Brian was a Paroa person for about 40 years before he moved to Hamilton on promotion with the Railways. Keith and Kate were able to follow the service by live stream.

Please hold both the Honey and Findlay families in your prayers at this time.
