SINCERE SYMPATHIES

It is with sadness that we were informed last Sunday evening of the death of Kevin Brown. Our deepest sympathies to his widow, Kaye, and all of the extended family of Kaye and Kevin respectively.

Both Kaye and Kevin had children and grandchildren from previous marriages, but they both welcomed each other's families into their hearts as their own and the welcome was reciprocated by the extended families.

Kevin was a Coaster through and through, serving the community in many capacities including two terms as mayor.

Kevin was also a friend to the churches of Greymouth. A committed Catholic himself, he nonetheless recognized the value of all Christian denominations and encouraged cooperation among them. After marrying Kaye, one of our former parishioners, he would often attend our services with Kaye and Kaye would attend Mass at St. Patrick's with Kevin.

We also extend our sincere condolences to the family of Jolan McLean whose funeral was held in Holy Trinity on Saturday. Holy Trinity was the church where Jolan and his wife, Melissa were married in 2004 in a double wedding with Melissa's twin, Melia, and her husband Kriston.

Jolan was a bigger than life character who passionately loved his family and will be sorely missed by family & friends.

Please hold both of these families in your prayers at this time.

Marge Writes This was the busiest week of the year for Robin and me. It was so helpful to know I could put out some S.O.S.'s for much needed help. So, a special thank you to—

- Bob Stanger for showing up at just the right time at the start and finish of the Christmas tree set-up on Monday to help with the big ladder and inspire us to keep going until the job was done.
- Numerous Holy Trinity parishioners who helped put chairs away after the Regent Carol Service on Wednesday.
- Samara Ewan for graciously picking up the running of the Christmas Treats give away in the Town Square on Friday night when Robin and I became involved with Kevin Brown's funeral.
- Jenny Hole and Raewyn Lindbom for organising a team to serve afternoon tea for the Kevin Brown funeral on Friday; and Greville and Marilyn Wood for packing away tables and chairs.
- The Kids 'n' Coffee team for staying and setting up for the funeral cuppa on Friday after a massive effort of our own K 'n' C Christmas Party (Thank you, Tony Woollett, for playing Santa.)

And a big thank you to everyone who went about their "normal" jobs of flowers, cleaning, mowing, admin, window cleaning, funeral assisting, and prayer. Gosh, what a team!

HOW'S IT GOING?

When will be the second coming of Jesus? Many people have bet their reputation, their lifestyle and even their faith on knowing the answer. All have been wrong so far!

There are many prophecies in the Old Testament about the coming of the Messiah, the Son of God, the Redeemer and the Saviour. They include references to the coming of Jesus about 2,000 years ago, and also to his second coming in the future.

However, the prophecies often intertwined the first and the second coming. The prophecies of Jesus' first coming have been remarkably accurate in every respect. This gives us confidence that prophecies dealing with his second coming will also be fulfilled.

Jesus tells us that there will be much suffering in the world first. Then, when Jesus returns, it will be sudden and dramatic. No-one will miss the event! People will be living their ordinary lives with no warning of the arrival until it happens.

Jesus also makes it clear that there will be a clear division between those in the Kingdom of God and those who have chosen not to belong. We are to be prepared and ready at all times for his arrival.

So, How prepared are you?
